Art Unit: 3634

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,3,5,6,13,15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Mauck et al. 5,503,394. Mauck et al. teach an outer housing assembly 11, holding rack having an upper stand 33, lower stand 14, connector tube 12, spring biasing mechanism 23, spring biased latching mechanism with latch pin 22.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2,4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mauck et al. Although Mauck et al. is shown used above ground, there is nothing to preclude part of the outer housing being buried underground. The Mauck et al. accessory would still function. Element 31 is used to secure the device to the ground. To bury the lower part of the housing as a mechanically equivalent alternative would have been obvious for one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention.

Claims 7,8,9,10,11,12 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 14 is allowable.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Similar holding racks are illustrated by Ruiz 5,188,243; Clement 5,842,564; Flis 5,950,823.
